

We

Refugee Rights

Dear

My heart aches knowing a majority of MPs supported the Safety of Rwanda bill last month, but as your constituent, your opposition to this cruel bill fills me with hope. This Valentine's Day I wanted to thank you for showing your love for refugee rights. With your help, we can ensure people fleeing war and persecution get the welcome and support they deserve.

