

We

Refugee Rights

Dear

This Valentine's Day, I am heartbroken. Last month, you supported the Safety of Rwanda bill, which will punish many men, women and children fleeing war and persecution for trying to reach safety and family in any way they can. As your constituent, I urge you to consider a change of heart and ensure refugees get the welcome and support they deserve.

